

Year 12 task: Non-British period study

Research a revolution of your choice and complete a 600-700 word short essay answering:

'Why was the _____ revolution important to history?'

You will need to outline and explain key aspects of the revolution such as:

- Who was involved
- Key events
- Any outcomes

You will need to explain its significance in history too

- Did it change anything?
- Did it affect many people?
- What impact did it have on those involved?
- Is there any relevant links you can make to situations in the world today?

You must use at least 4 different sources of information – books, websites and articles and provide a list of your sources at the end of your essay.

Word count is a guide, but no less than 550 and no more than 1000 words.

Good luck!
